

Government of Western Australia
Department of Health

Protect your pregnant patients and their unborn babies

Recommend vaccination for influenza and whooping cough

Vaccination can prevent serious complications for your pregnant patients and their babies.

As their most trusted source of health information, urge your patients to get these free vaccines today.