Growing a strong and skilled Aboriginal health workforce

Gain a graduate program to start your career in WA Health

A graduate program can give you the start you need for a career in nursing and midwifery in a variety of settings. Completion of a graduate program will assist you to gaining the experience to further your career progression. GradConnect is an online recruitment system that can link you to numerous graduate programs in WA.

Why GradConnect

GradConnect has been tailored for Aboriginal undergraduates with cultural safety embedded across the recruitment process.

Entrance requirements

You will need to have completed your nursing or midwifery studies in Australia within the last 2 years at the time of application (i.e. no more than 2 years since graduation). More information about eligibility criteria can be found on the GradConnect \(health.wa.gov.au\) page.

Job Opportunities

A graduate program is designed to improve your career progression in the nursing and midwifery industry.

How to apply

Applications to apply for a graduate program through GradConnect will be advertised prior to the end of each semester. The Chief Nursing and Midwifery Officer strongly encourage you to visit the GradConnect website in the link provided for further information on the program: GradConnect \(health.wa.gov.au\)
